

the station k-love is very important not only to me, but also to my family. it is wholesome music that the whole family can listen to. please understand that if it is taken away from us, or changed, it will affect millions of people who listen either through their local stations, like i do; or people who listen through the internet, also like i do. please carefully consider what you plan to do. thank you